Description:

Sixteen-year-old Tatum Elsea is bracing for the worst summer of her life. After being falsely accused of a crime, she's stuck under stepmother-imposed house arrest and her BFFs gone ghost. Tatum fills her newfound free time with community service by day and working at her covert graphic design business at night (which includes trading emails with a cute cello-playing client). When Tatum discovers she's not the only one in the house keeping secrets, she finds she has the chance to make amends with her family and friends. Equipped with a new perspective, and assisted by her feisty step-abuela/fairy-godmother, Tatum is ready to start fresh and maybe even get her happy ending along the way. A modern play on the Cinderella story arc, IT STARTED WITH GOODBYE shows us that sometimes going after what you want means breaking the rules. IT STARTED WITH GOODBYE will appeal to fans of Sarah Dessen, Stephanie Perkins, and Jennifer E. Smith.

This novel had me at this line ...despite all the doors that had closed on me along the way, a window could open up at any time. Usually, I listen to audiobooks because I have epilepsy and reading requires that I struggle through an increased number of spells. Despite that a window opened and my family read the first three chapters to me and once hooked I couldn't wait to finish the rest on my own. I hope everyone who reads about Tatum's struggles will have their hearts lifted to be able to tackle their own problems afresh. Happy reading!
